WHY YOU SHOULD RECORD YOUR COLOR PALETTE:

Painting the interior of your home can be huge undertaking. Documenting your paint colors along with the rooms they were painted in will save you a lot of time with future touch-ups.

Use this Interior Colour Palette to document and record your new or existing interior colour pallet. Copy or print (page 7 and 8) for multiple rooms or larger interiors. Store and file away all your project documents together for your future records.

Start by filling out the Project Details below on this page.

Then read the instructions on the following page and do your best to copy the formatting of each room/space.

Date of Project:
_____

Address of Project:
_____

Date Painted:
_____

Painting Contractor Name:
_____

Painting Contractor Phone:
_____

Brands of Paint Used:
_____

_____

Start with filling in the project information above and then follow the instructions on the next page. It's best to print off a copy or simply input the data using your device and save it.

HOW TO USE YOUR INTERIOR COLOR PALETTE:

Use the legend below to help guide and understand the descriptions of each part of the color palette sheet. Keep a physical copy (with the color dab on the page) as well as a digital copy for securing future records.

1. Color Palette Name:
Name the color pallet of your room. (It's fun being creative!)

2. Room Here:
Put the name of the room on this line. If the same colors exist in multiple rooms, then just separate the rooms with a comma.

3. Surface:
With proper prep and application, almost anything can be painted. Use this space to identify the object or surface that was painted.

4. Paint Brand:
Sometimes the same color name can be used by other paint manufacturers. Identify the Brand and the product name.

5. Product Name:
The product name is usually the largest print on the label.

Eg. 1: Benjamine Moore Aura   Eg. 2: Sherwin Williams Duration

Paint Brand   Product Name   Paint Brand   Product Name

6. Color Name:
Add the name of the color you chose in this section.

7. Color Code:
Add the color code of the paint color in this section.

8. Sheen / Gloss:
This section describes the shininess of the paint. Is the paint flat, eggshell, semigloss or high gloss? Check the paint can to view the sheen level,

9. Color Dab:
Use a rag, small brush or fingertip and apply a small paint sample of each paint color used to this section. Allow the paint to dry before storing or folding.
